ORGANIZERS AND PARTNERS

Nouvelles Etoiles Music Competition (Classic & Jazz) is organized by International Cultural Association Artima (Paris, France), directed by Maria Christiany, French violinist and violinist of Russian origin. with the support of :

- CRD Jean Wiener (Bobigny, Grand Paris, France)
- UniArt international orchestra
- Diplomatic and cultural organizations
- Violin makers from Cremona Maria Strelnikova and Alessandro Sironi

GOALS

The objective of Nouvelles Etoiles is to discover promising young musical talents and to support their future professional development. The aim of the competition-festival is also to promote cooperation and cultural exchanges between France and other countries.

DATES AND PROCEDURE

The 9th Edition of Nouvelles Etoiles is taking place from 1st December 2023 to 20th January 2024.

Registrations are open until 20th January 2024 included and will take place online.

The results will be released c. 2 weeks after the registrations' closing date.

Diplomas and certificates will be sent by email.

The winners of the Grand Prizes and Special Prizes will receive a financial award in addition to their diploma. The Artima association has set up a financial fund to reward the winners of the Grands Prix who will be able to share the sum of 1,200 euros. The Grands Prix are selected from all candidates, regardless of musical discipline, nomination and age category.

The Grand Prizes and First Prizes laureates can be invited to perform the concerts in prestigious halls in France and / or in other countries to be defined, some of which will be accompanied by the international orchestra Uniart. The dates of these concerts will be decided by Nouvelles Etoiles organization committee depending on the global epidemiological situation.

The competition will take place online in a single round.

Our Jury will evaluate the video materials sent by the candidates and select the laureates based on these videos. The evaluation is based on the average score granted by the Jury Members to each candidate.
